Two Schools Ask For Tax Increase

Both Emmons Grade School District No. 33 and the Antioch Grade school will hold referendums Saturday, Feb. 25, to raise the educational tax rate of the districts.

Emmons Grade School will build an addition to the school, with the groundbreaking taking place in the spring. It is expected that the new addition will be ready for use in September.

The board of education of Emmons School says the raise in the educational tax is necessary to equip and staff the addition. They are asking that the educational tax be raised 21c, from 82c to $1.03. These funds are essential, the board says, to provide student furniture, books and teachers' salaries.

Growth of the district has necessitated the new building. When the addition is completed, the school will have eight separate grades for the first time.

The Antioch Grade School Board is asking that the educational tax rate of the District be raised from 90c to $1.11.

Superintendent Richard Whitacre, auditor Norman Jedele and board members explained the need for the tax hike to residents at the PTA meeting Monday night. Mr. Jedele, school auditor, pointed out that the school will be $48,000 in the red by June. The deficit will grow to $134,000 by the time the school receives its next tax payment.

If the 21c raise is approved, it will bring about $68,000 additional monies into the school treasury. This will be needed to help pay the deficit that will already have been incurred.

Superintendent Whitacre pointed out that the educational tax of the school has not been raised since March 17, 1945. "We probably should have asked for this tax increase sooner," he said. "However, we've never made a practice of asking for money we didn't need. Each time that it's looked like we were going to need more money we've been saved by the annexation of another school or a raise in assessed valuation, such as the moving in of a new industry. This time, it appears a tax raise is the only answer."

The proposed tax raise, Whitacre said, would only support the present school program. "It's not for a new service, such as the addition or an art course, or for any frills. We'll have to have it just to support the present program," he said.

The tax raise will bring the educational tax rate of Antioch Grade School up to about the same rate as most nearby schools, Whitacre said. Tax rates are: at Lake Villa School, $1.11; Gurnee, $1.11; Fox Lake, $1.11 and Gavin, $1.16.

"We will have to issue anticipation warrants this year," Whitacre said, "which means that the taxpayers' money will be going to pay interest. We don't believe that the people want their money wasted in interest payments."

The polls at both Emmons and Antioch Grade Schools will be open from noon Saturday until 7 p.m. Registered voters may vote in the school election. The Antioch Grade School will be the polling place for the Antioch Grade School District, including Oakland School and Channel Lake.

Antioch To Have New C. D. Siren

Antioch will soon have a Civil Defense siren, probably within the next two or three months.

Purchase of the siren and installation are estimated at $1,420. The Federal Civil Defense Agency will pay half the cost, with Antioch and the C.D. each paying $710.

Civil Defense Director Edward Frazier presented approval of the siren and Federal approval of the reimbursement to the board members and Mayor Ray Toft. Irv Fimek, a representative of the Great Lakes Equipment Co., and Richard Willer, Lake County Civil Defense Director, were present at the meeting to answer any questions the board might have.

The siren will be purchased from the Great Lakes Equipment Co. It is a two-tone siren, to differentiate between its sound and that of the Rescue Squad or Fire Department.

The siren has two sets of horns, facing in all directions, to give greater sound penetration. It is a 10 h.p. motor, the same size as the Rescue Squad siren.

The siren will be used for emergency warning, such as a tornado, air raid, etc.

Mr. Fimek told the board they could anticipate delivery within four to six weeks. The village will have to pay for the siren. Then present the bills to the Civil Defense Agency for reimbursement.

Purchase of the siren represents the culmination of several months of effort on the part of Ed Frazier, Civil Defense Director, in determining the best siren for Antioch's use and securing Federal specifications and approval of the proposed purchase. He thanked the Mayor and trustees for their cooperation, and was in return complimented by the Mayor for the thorough job he is doing in the interest of the village.

In other business, Antoinette Nielsen, 1014 Spafford St., was hired by the board to serve as crossing guard at the Antioch Grade School.

The board gave permission to the Lakeview Girl Scout Council to conduct their annual cookie sale. Sales are made March 3 through the 17th, and deliveries made April 7 to 21.

The board approved a request by Janet Brook to hold a Tag Day for Channel 11 on April 14, with the Antioch Woman's Club conducting the sale.

Bids on eleven new street lights were opened. Anti-

Antioch GOP Club To Honor Lloyd Murrie, Blaine Ring

By Harry H. Stern

The Antioch Township Republican Club will throw a big wing-ding, their 10th Annual Spring Dinner Party, Friday, March 31st, at Lorenz' Smart Country House, to honor two local sons who have turned in impressive records in public office.

Lloyd (Red) Murrie, Antioch Township Supervisor and Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and Blaine Ring, Township Road Commissioner, are the officials chosen for the Club's kudos. Murrie and Ring are running for re-election, unopposed. The extremely successful administration of their offices discouraged all of the opposition of any hope of even coming cose to having a chance of success at the polls against them.

W. J. "Bill" Murphy, popular State Legislator, will be the master of ceremonies.

While all of this is going on, the ATRC and the Ladies Auxiliary will install their new slates of officers who were elected at the February 16th meeting. For the men the lineup includes Gene Zannini, president; Harry Stern and Herb Horton, vice presidents; Jim Olson, secretary-treasurer, and Ole Mathisen, sergeant-at-arms.

For the ladies, Helen Burke is president; Louise Murrie,

In Vietnam From Antioch

Here are more names of Antioch residents serving in Viet Nam.

The personnel at the Antioch post office is sending packages to those in Viet Nam who come from the area served by the Antioch post office. The packages mainly contain pre-sweetened Kool Aid, which many of our soldiers in Viet Nam request. A few other small, handy items are being included, as available.

The project has become more or less a project of the whole area, since it became known. Many people are making contributions to help the fund, and many bring Kool Aid.

The post office personnel asks that those who give Kool Aid be sure to get the pre-sweetened type. Sugar is not always available to the boys.

Congratulations, Champs

The Antioch Sequoits have finished the basketball season undefeated in conference play, and champions of the Northwest Suburban Conference. The kids who brought the trophy home to Antioch deserve congratulations and a Thank You from everyone in Antioch.

Not that there can be any doubt in the boys' minds that Antioch residents appreciate the fine job they've done. It's been standing room only at the games most of the season.

Of course, the boys play basketball because they love the game. But a lot of hard work and self-discipline goes into making a good athletic team. These boys spent most of the hours that they aren't in school practicing during the season. And out of season most of them take part in other sports. In addition, they have to study to keep up their grades to remain eligible for the team.

The coach and the managers come in for a lot of hard work, too. The boys who make up the reserve squad know they'll never be stars; never reap the glory, but they keep on plugging along, working hard, and doing the best they can. They are necessary, and important.

"Happiness is being No. 1" says a sign in the High School corridor, put up by students. Yes, it's pretty nice to be Best in the Conference. The boys don't really need our thanks—they get a lot out of playing basketball and being a member of a winning team. But thanks anyway. You've given us a lot of pleasure throughout the season. And brought honor to your school.

We'll miss the boys who are graduating this year. A few we'll see back on the basketball floor next year. Good luck to all of you.

George Washington Father Of Our Country

By Charles B. Watson

Napoleon once said: "Great men are like meteors, which shine and consume themselves to enlighten the earth."

While we are thinking in terms of great men, let us center our interest on one great man and that man is George Washington, whose memory we shall always revere.

Probably no greater tribute could be paid to Washington than the extensive biographies which he has inspired; because there are few men who have been discussed to the same extent.

It is not necessary for me to introduce as a preamble the position America was in at the time Washington began to make history, because that is known to all of us. But let us consider this one thought; that authors in most instances have seized for their discourse a self-selected shred of a character too great for his or her comprehension; and in many cases personal feelings may affect historical judgment.

Despite, however, what some writers say of the personal or private life of Washington to the contrary, he had a very definite and firm conviction as to his relationship with the Supreme Architect of the Universe.

If we were to look more to the virtues of man than to his faults, the influence of our thoughts might go a long way in correcting some of the present day evils.

At the age of twenty years, Washington was deprived through death of the companionship of his brother Lawrence; who had been to him as a father, but the very gifts he had acquired through his years of training in the wilderness were to be put to a real test in the management of large estates inherited by his brother's widow.

On Dec. 5, 1774, there came together fifty-one of the most prominent men of twelve colonies. Georgia sent no delegate. These men came from various walks of life. But there was a surprising unity of spirit and feeling among them and the keynote, no doubt, was struck by Patrick Henry, when he said, "All America is thrown into one mass".

Decisions were rapidly being made and resolutions were being passed under the leadership of such men as Adams of Boston, Dickinson of Philadelphia and John Hay of New York.

Washington, according to history, had taken a very small part in public discussions. But Patrick Henry, when asked whom he considered the greatest man in Congress, replied, "If you speak of eloquence, Mr. Rutledge of South Carolina is by far the greatest orator. But if you speak of solid information and sound judgment, Colonel Washington is the greatest man on the floor."

The intervening events are generally known so let us advance to April 16, 1789, when Washington bade adieu to Mount Vernon and to private life, with a mind oppressed with anxious and painful sensations and set off for New York.

Shouting multitudes greeted his arrival, but this triumphal entry was depressing rather than exciting to him.

At the inauguration, as the Chancellor finished reading the oath of office as President, Washington stooped and reverently kissed the Bible and said firmly: "I swear, so help me God."

Recording the events that followed would be a story in itself, but let us think of a few outstanding characteristics of his make up.

Even in childhood we find him arming himself wih a code of moral and ethics for his life pattern. We find in him a deep reverence for his Creator. We find in him a liberty-loving individual only in the sense that his fellow men were to enjoy the same liberty.

Harmony and liberal intercourse with all nations he recommended by policy and interest.

His summing-up statement shows the sincerity of his love for his country and mankind in general, when he said, "Brethren, this nation and the flag is our heritage and I sincerely hope we are awake to the fact that the alien propaganda abroad in our land today is subtly trying to undermine and destroy these blessings, which are ours to enjoy, through the sacrifices of our forefathers, and the thousands of brave men, who have paid with their life's blood that we might continue in this, our Land of Freedom."

Is it any wonder that we celebrate in a spirit of great pride and respect the 22nd day of February as the Birthday of the Father of our Country?

And in a spirit of gratitude may our united respect and reverence never cease to be manifested on the 22nd of February.

From Our Readers

Dear Editor:

It does not seem possible that the Legislators backing legalized Bingo can have made a thorough study of the ultimate results of such an action.

Counting the number of religious, fraternal and social organizations that might have some sort of charitable connotation, it could well mean that there would be Bingo games every night in the week in any town, large or small.

Bingo, despite the denial of its backers, is aimed at the household budget and this is the most vital, necessary purchasing dollar that exists today.

Millions could be channeled into the funds of various organizations. This would mean a great loss of purchasing power in the business world.

The state would lose the benefit of the 4% sales tax that is collected for state aid. There is no way of estimating the number of times a dollar may yield this 4% through average spending. This money would be lost to taxation when diverted to Bingo games.

Having spent much time in Arizona where Bingo is a general pastime, I have learned a lot about the financial burden it has placed on the taxpayers. A state income tax failed to fill the void, an inventory tax was assessed on all business, the next step was personal property tax to be paid with the purchase of automobile license and most rigidly enforced. The final step was sales tax.

It would seem that legalized Bingo might well mean double jeopardy for Illinois tax payers.

Sincerely,
Gen Gibbs

Legalized bingo and state lotteries? Yes and no.

I would be in favor of the state operating one big lottery a year for the benefit of the schools and hospitals of the state, but I would not be in favor of private lotteries, simply because it would be impossible to police them.

Legalized bingo? Yes, under strict circumstances. I would favor bingo games only for prizes other than money, and to be conducted only by recognized and reputable charitable groups.

Years ago, I was employed by a firm that supplied carnivals, churches and other bingo operating groups with their prize merchandise and bingo supplies. A church in Chicago had been operating bingo games for several weeks, and were working up to a big jack-pot game with many hundreds of dollars in prizes. A carnival operator was running the game for the church with the help of the clergyman.

To make a long story short, I learned that a lady was paid $25 to come and play bingo at this church jackpot game with the understanding that if she happened to win, she would not claim her prize. This lady told me that when she arrived at the church, there was a tense atmosphere. The people recognized that she was a stranger and she was greeted with suspicion and unfriendliness. She won the big jackpot! The prize money, (according to the story I heard) was divided between the carnival man and the church. The bingo players were furious and the winning lady had many anxious moments in trying to exit from the church amidst catcalls and insults. Is this the atmosphere we really want for our churches and fine organizations?

I visited a church in Arizona where bingo was legal. A friend of mine who knew the people well, said that many of the elderly ladies playing were actually bingo addicts, and though they were often destitute for food and suffered from mal-nutrition—they never missed a bingo game. Children in the area suffered, too, when mothers spent food money on bingo.

How can bingo be crooked? There are many ways. The man calling numbers merely memorizes a winning combination on a certain card. If he has the cooperation of his "helper," it is simple to regulate who wins.

Why can't we Americans help good causes without having them resort to lotteries or bingo games? The world would certainly be a better place if people supported worthy institutions from their hearts, instead of giving, only with the hope of selfish gain.

Throughout the evening accusations were being made as to certain items being stolen. As it turned out Bill Brook had his cuff links and tie bar stolen; Red Murrie, Ron Anderson, Ken Torkelson had their dinner tickets stolen, Bill Murphy had his watch stolen, Homer Laplant—missing belt, and Hilliard (Toby) Tobieski had money and pens, etc., taken. Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Township elections this year should produce some interesting races for county board membership with some strange alignments and realignments, adding spice to the contests.

Take for example Deerfield Township where Supervisor Frank B. Peers, a leader of the opposition regardless of which particular group is in the ascendency, will be seeking re-election.

Peers, recognized as one of the few Democratic members of the county board although he was elected originally as Assistant Supervisor and later as Supervisor on a non-partisan ticket, will be faced with two opponents in his bid for re-election.

One of the opponents is Town Clerk Robert Moroney, son of the long-time Deerfield Supervisor Emmett Moroney, a force to be reckoned with in Republican politics in the county even though he has been retired for several years

Heading the third ticket will be Highland Park Councilman Daniel Vetter who was a candidate for State Representative in the Republican primary last June and is the only supervisor candidate running as a Republican.

The deadline for filing had hardly passed before the political gossip mills were grinding out reports that Moroney was running interference for Peers; that Vetter was running interference for Moroney, and that Peers and Vetter would eventually join forces to block Moroney's bid for the seat held so long by his pater.

In Shields Township incumbent Alex Brebner is opposed by Robert Price, former assistant supervisor and long-time political ally of the former Lake Forest police chief.

Cynics are certain Price entered to split any anti-Brebner opposition that might develop and that he will withdraw from the race.

In Newport Township Supervisor LeRoy Frtiz is opposed by Hollis Lee Austin, son of the Waukegan alderman, and there are wide-open races in Fremont where Mrs. Lillian Wirtz, the county's lone lady supervisor is in a four way race; in Benton Township where Supervisor Ken Henke faces a battle, and in Zion where Ernest Mintern is opposed by Magistrate Paul Hatten among others.

Antioch. Supervisor Lloyd Murrie can sit back and enjoy the luxury of an unopposed candidacy, but he will be watching the other townships anxiously because too big an overturn of incumbents could thwart his hopes of repeating as Chairman of the County Board.

County Treasurer Ray Sheahen has been unable to select a Chief Deputy, but he displayed good taste and a fine eye for figures in his selection of a secretary to replace "vacationing" Irene Nickell.

One wonders where the members of the Lake County Bar Association and the members of the judiciary were during the early planning and skirmishing on the new county building.

Certainly they could not have been unaware that no courtrooms were being provided in the intial phase of the complex construction.

Grand jury probes and flexing of judicial muscles would seem to be a little tardy at this point especially when it is recalled that grand juries for the past two decades at least have been faulting the county jail as inadequate, uncomfortable, and somewhat short of minimum standards.

It does seem that somewhere along the long line leading to the turning of the first spade of dirt on the project some attorney or jurist would have noticed that no courtrooms or jail space were provided in the plans.

Diana Maria Stagg and Wendy Jensen entertained with a vocal and guitar duet at the A.F.S. Valentine's Day party.

Valentine's Day Party Honors Diana

Diana Maria Stagg, foreign student spending a year in Antioch attending Antioch High School, was the guest of honor at the AFS. Valentine party at the high school last Tuesday nilght.

Diana has become well known to Antioch residents through her appearances at luncheons and other public functions. "She's a sweetheart," declared Mrs. Robert Jensen, who arranges Diana's public appearances.

The crowd seemed to agree with Mrs. Jensen, as Diana made a short speech, answered questions and sang a couple of songs. "How many languages do you speak?" someone asked. "One and a half," replied Diana, referring to her occasional difficulties with the English language.

Diana is from Ecuador. She and Wendy Jensen sang and played a guitar duet, substituting some words of their own in the song "Friendship."

The purpose and program of the American Field Service was discussed by local officers of the A.F.S., including the need for adequate finances and the role of the Student Council in A.F.S. work.

Antioch "parents" of two former foreign students at Antioch High School were introduced. Mrs. Harold Nelson read excerpts from letters the Nelson family had received from Masaji Okubo of Japan, the first student sent to Antioch by the A.F.S.

Masaji lived with the Nelson family during his year here. He told of his pleasure in spending a year here and his happy memories. He is now attending the University in Tokyo.

Mrs. O. W. Turner read portions of a letter from Beatriz Munoz Castro of Colombia, who spent last year at the Turner home. Both Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Turner told of the pleasures of being host to a student for a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Lyons, in whose home Diana is staying, were unable to be present. Their children, Kevin, Gary and Sally, represented them at the party.

The A.F.S. is at present seeking applicants for a home for next year's foreign student, and funds to support their project.

Appointed Chairman of Red Cross Fund Drive

Preston J. Reckers, Jr., assistant vice president of the State Bank of Antioch, has been appointed chairman of the 1967 Red Cross fund Drive for Antioch Township.

Assisting Mr. Reckers in the drive will be Mrs. Joseph W. Sterbenz and Mrs. Robert C. Wilton, residential; Everett Oftedahl, owner of Frostee Sno Co., industrial, and Robert Lubkeman, of Antioch Lumber & Coal Co., retail.

The fund drive of the American Red Cross will be launched Wednesday, Mar. 1.

Two outstanding examples of Red Cross aid in the Antioch area are the Antioch Rescue Squad and the Aqua Center. All members of the Rescue Squad take the Red Cross First Aid course, one of the Red Cross' community services. The swimming courses offered at the Antioch Aqua Center, under the supervision of swimming instructors from the Red Cross, is another outstanding Antioch program.

For the Lakes area, Red Cross First Aid men have courses on water safety.

When it comes to disaster, the Red Cross takes over. Many Antioch residents saw the damage caused by a tornado that hit the Crystal Lake area.

Remember these many services when a Red Cross representative calls on you for a contribution.

RULES FOR CLAIMING WIFE'S EXEMPTION

Chicago, Ill.—For income tax purposes, a wife is never a dependent of her husband. The exemption allowed for her is based upon the marital relationship, not on dependency, according to E. C. Coyle, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern Illinois.

A husband may claim his wife's exemption on his separate return only if she has no income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. Husbands and wives may file joint returns even though one of them has no income.

Mr. Coyle said that if the wife had income in any amount, the husband can claim his wife's exemption only by filing a joint return with her. On a joint return, income and deductions of both husband and wife must be included, and both must sign the return.

It's easy to place a classified—just call 395-4111.

DEPENDENCY EXEMPTIONS NEVER PRORATED

Chicago, Ill.—The deduction for dependency exemption is not prorated because of the birth or death of a dependent during the taxable year, E. C. Coyle, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern Illinois said today.

Of a child is born alive at any time during the year, you may claim the full $600 exemption if all other dependency tests are met. This is true even though the child may have lived only momentarily or was born on the last day of the year. However, an exemption may not be claimed for a stillborn child.

Mr. Coyle said that if a dependent died during the year and all other dependency tests were met, the full $600 exemption is allowable, even if the dependent died in January.

There are more than 4,000 collectors of clocks in the nation.

TV Version of "Jack And The Beanstalk" Set For February 26

An original television musical version of "Jack and the Beanstalk" will be presented on Sunday evening, February 26 by the American Gas Industry.

The one-hour show, featuring specially-written music, mythology, animation and live-action drama, will star singer-dancer Gene Kelly, and loveable eight-year old Bobby Rhia as Jack.

The color program will be sponsored locally by Northern Illinois Gas Company. It will be aired from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. (CST) on NBS television.

Nuclear power for Northern Illinois: Our first unit works so well we're building you five more.

Dresden One was a pioneer. It helped make Northern Illinois brighter. More important, it showed that nuclear-powered generating units are more efficient and reliable. And, by using nuclear energy we could produce electricity at about ten percent less cost.

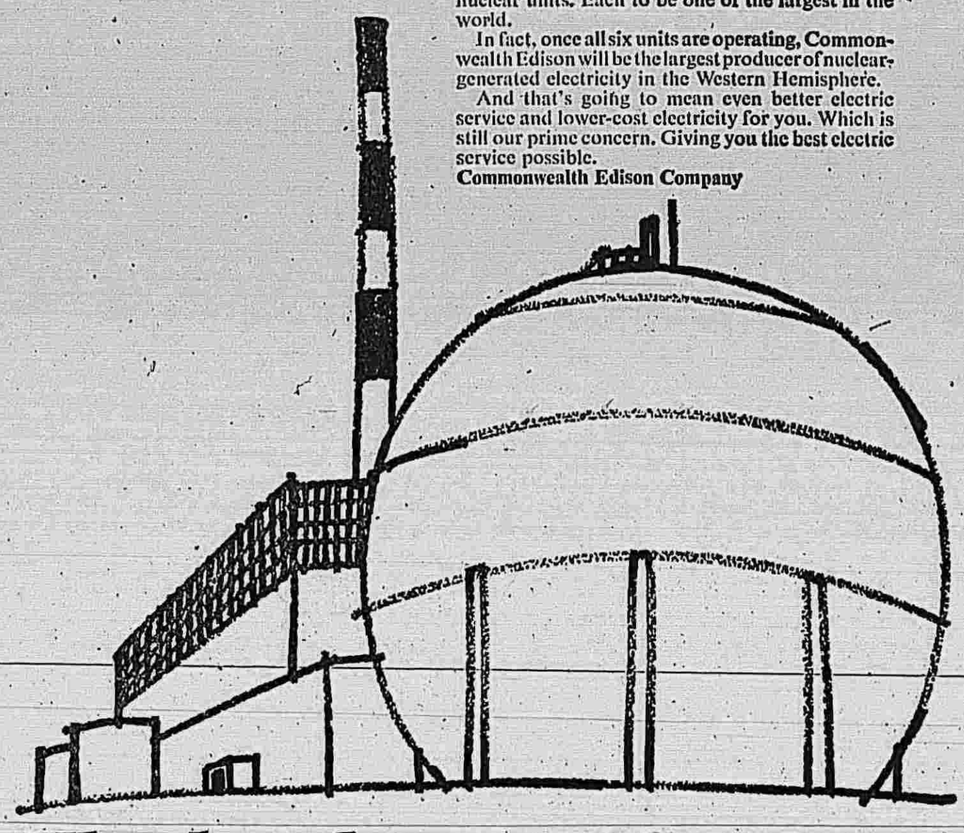

Result?

By the early 1970s we plan to add five more nuclear units. Each to be one of the largest in the world.

In fact, once all six units are operating, Commonwealth Edison will be the largest producer of nuclear-generated electricity in the Western Hemisphere.

And that's going to mean even better electric service and lower-cost electricity for you. Which is still our prime concern. Giving you the best electric service possible.

P M & L News

A new play, a new cast, a new crew, and PM&L is ready to start all over again.

Antigone closed this last weekend and many (both audience and PM&L members) feel that, dramatically, this was the best production PM&L has yet given. Hats off to Antigone (Mavourneen Reardon), Creon (A. G. Ramsay), the Chorus (Steve Krotz), the entire cast, and especially to director Don Beveroth who did a magnificent job.

Now on the agenda is The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker which will be given April 14, 15, 21, and 22. This comedy by Liam O'Brian will be directed by Josef Hunley. The play is both gay and wistful as it recounts a crisis in the life of a gentleman of the 1890's who believes in Reason. We find out how he has lived his theories to the hilt, and his saga unfolds with endless, unforgettably pleasurable laughs.

The community can help PM&L with this production. It takes place in the 1890's and if anyone has any dresses, corsets, girdles, petticoats, high button shoes, etc. that they would be willing to give or lend to the group, it would be much appreciated. An Edison horn phonograph is also needed! Call Josef Hunley (395-4228) if if you have anything to offer.

The Freshman wrestling squad finished the season with a record of 4 wins and 4 losses. They had ten matches, of which two were exhibitions.

The following boys finished the season: Lance Larsen, Jim Spittle, Larry Wells, Jim Rockow, John White, John Prosise, Rick Nelson, Tom Tossey, Rick Temple, Don Hellstern, Bill Calloway, Mike Griffin, Dave Strang, Don Rush, Ted DeBoer, Ron Ozga and Jim Haley.

Of these boys, the following were regular starters: Lance Larsen at 95 lbs.; Jim Rockow at 103 lbs.; John Prosise at 122 lbs.; Rick Nelson at 120 lbs.; Mike Griffin at 127 lbs.; Dave Strang at 133 lbs.; Don Rush at 138 lbs.; Ted DeBoer at 145 lbs.; Ron Ozga at 180 lbs., and Jim Haley at heavyweight.

Boys with winning records were Jim Rockow at 103 lbs.; John Prosise at 112 lbs.; Rick Nelson at 120 lbs.; Ron Ozga at 180 lbs., and Jim Haley, heavyweight.

"These boys did an outstanding job this year, as did all the freshman wrestlers," Coach Allen Etzbach. "Our only weakness in the frosh squad is lack of depth in the higher weight groups. The squad had to forfeit two weight classes every match. We hope the situation will improve next year."

"What makes you think Junior will be in politics some day?" asked mother.

Father replied: "He says more thaing that sound well and mean nothing than any other boy I know."

Pin Singles Starts Saturday

The 22nd annual Singles tournament will get under way Saturday at the Antioch Bowl, and run through the next four weekends, ending Saturday, March 18.

A new feature of this year's tournament is the opening of the competition to women bowlers. Men will bowl for a $500 first prize, women for a $200 first prize.

The Men's Singles tournament has long been a drawing card for bowlers of Lake County and Chicago. This year, Jack Sampayo, proprietor of the alleys with Mrs. A. Schamberger, expects the tournament to draw the many high-scoring women bowlers in the area in addition to the men.

The tournament had more than 1,600 entries last year, and Sampayo expects more this year. Bowlers may register any time at the alleys. Special prizes are listed for the first weekend, and for weekday afternoons.

The tourney is 200 scratch, two-thirds handicap, with a 100-pin limit for men and 140-pin limit for women.

Bowlers from the Ehlers Lanes will start off the tournament Saturday. The Z-B Bowling center will also have a group bowling Saturday and Sunday.

Beginners Get Chance To Bring Home The Bacon

Acceding to repeated requests, the McHenry Sportsmen's Club will stage a repeat permormance of their "Three for a Buck" Chicken Shoot Sunday, February 26, starting at 11 a.m. at their trap range on the west side of Pisakee Bay.

This "once - in - a - while" treat, the club's answer to the high cost of living, gives shooters a 50% increase in prize value with no increase in the shooting fee.

Three tender young chickens will be awarded to every five-man squad, and at their discretion may be won in any one of three different contests. They may choose to let the high scoring gun take all three fryers; or they may compete in a Double White Bird shoot, one chicken for each white target broken, and one for the high gun. Or they may go for the Hi-Lo-White Bird shoot. This one was dreamed up by trap officers, to enable novice and average shooters to win more meat than the hot-shots. In this contest one chicken is won by the high scoring gun; one is won by the lowest scoring shooter, and one by breaking the white target. The latter two shoots will give the ordinary shooters a weapon with which to rub salt in the top gunner's ego.

In most instances the average shooters hesitate to attend prize shoots because they cannot hope to win against the superior shooters. In meeting this problem head-on, club officials are making every effort to woo these shooters onto the range, to take their turn in the enjoyment of this fascinating sport by equalizing the odds in their favor

As a change in diet for some shooters, tender-aged JoPat steaks and shooters' articles will be on the bill of fare of prizes. Six-prize Quintuple White Bird Shoots, Annie Oakley and Protection Shoots will also be on the day's program of contests. Hot refreshments and shells will be on tap all day long in the warm clubhouse.

From the east, visitors will follow Route 134 Big Hollow Road to its western terminus, then a right turn for ½ mile. From McHenry it is north on Chapel Hill Road to Adams Service Station and a right turn. From the west the route is through Johnsburg, across the Fox River, with a left turn at Adams Service Station.

Soph Matmen Post 13-1 Record

The sophomore wrestling squad finished the season with a record of 13 wins and one loss, with the only loss coming in their match with Lake Forest. "This is probably one of the most improved wrestling squads I have had," Coach Andy Hauptman said. "The boys did an outstanding job."

Lake Forest beat the Sequoit mat men by seven points in the sophomore tournament. "If Chuck Madsen had not been injured," Hauptman said, "we would have taken the tournament."

Antioch had four soph tournament champs: at 120 lbs., Gary Aerne; at 127 lbs., Paul Lulofs; at 133 lbs. Terry Triplett, and Don Gaa at 154 lbs.

Paul Lulofs has been at the sophomore level for the last two years. He has accumulated 34 wins and two ties. "Paul is a hard worker and has a bright future in wrestling," Hauptman said.

Terry Triplett is a freshman who just joined the wrestling team in late January, and took third in the District. "We will expect a lot more out of Terry in the future," Hauptman remarked.

Don Gaa did an excellent job in the tournament," Hauptman said.

Other boys on the wrestling team who placed in the tournament were: Jack Hamm, a freshman who replaced Chuck Madsen at 138 lbs. and took a fourth. Jack did a commendable job.

Dennis Pleviak took a second at 103 lbs. Denny was a consistent winner all year and should have another fine season next year.

Bill Weeks took a second and gave an eight or nine lb. advantage every match, but did a good job.

Bill Dow took a third at heavyweight and did a good job all season.

John Meyer and Mike Patterson had outstanding records, losing only one dual match all season. They were beaten in their first tournament matches by boys who were wrestling Varsity all year and moved down for the tournament.

"Bob Weeks was another boy who improved a great deal from his frosh year," Hauptman said. "If Bob works a little harder next year, I feel he can be a varsity wrestler."

Charles Hollocker, soph heavyweight, did an outstanding job and would have wrestled in the tournament but had a conflict.

Larry Wells, a freshman boy who wrestled at 95 lbs., "did an average job," Hauptman said. "I think Larry will be a much better wrestler after this year's experience"

Hauptman said, "I think the reason for our success was that I finally had a group of boys who wanted to wrestle. Very seldom did we have anyone late or absent, and to me this is an important factor in a wrestling program. The desire, to want to be a wrestler, is a different kind of boy. There is not much glory or praise, as in basketball; it is all self-satisfaction.

"Antioch is going to move to the top in wrestling in the next few years," Hauptman said, "because the interest is building up in the lower grades, and I am sure it will carry through."

St. Peters Wins Tourney Honors

St. Peter's School basketball team won the championship of the "B" division of the Catholic schools in this area in the recent tournament.

The tournament was held at Carmel High School in Mundelein, with 32 schools participating. The tourney started February 7 and ended Sunday, Feb. 12.

St. Peter's team defeated four schools to take the trophy. Their first game, against St. Bede's of Fox Lake, they won 35-20.

In the second game, they defeated the team of Mother of God School in Waukegan, 38-20. The third game, St. John the Baptist of McHenry went down before the Antioch squad, 35-20.

The final game was with Holy Family of North Chicago. St. Peter's team won in overtime, 47-41.

The "B" division is made up of schools with an enrollment of 515 or less. Larger schools are in the "A" division.

In addition to the basketball trophy, St. Peter's took the honors for cheerleaders and Most Valuable Player. St. Peter's Cheerleaders took the first place trophy for their performance.

Fred Walpole was chosen the Most Valuable Player of the tournament and received a one-year scholarship to Carmel. The scholarship is given by the Knights of Columbus.

Fred Walpole, Jr., was chosen Most Valuable Player in the Catholic Grade Schools basketball tournament.

Cossman Man To Beat In Coming Race Season

With only seven more weekends remaining before the season opener at the Waukegan Speedway, the local speed merchants are shifting into high gear and it's full speed ahead to complete their entries for the 1967 "Gold-Rush" at the nearby speedway. The man the late model pilots are setting their sites on its Jim Cossman, the defending Waukegan Speedway late model champion who will be behind the wheel of his record breaking Chevy II when the season opens April 15.

Jim Cossman, who lives in the shadow of the speedway on the west side of Waukegan, began his auto racing career in 1962 when he began tooling his No. 51 Chevy stock car around the Waukegan oval. His popular No. 7 Chevy carried him to the late model championship in 1964. The following season he wound up second ranked to Dennis Burgan, but Cossman rebounded to inch out Burgan for the hotly contested 1966 title.

Cossman who admits to 33 years of age, has been dubbed "Gentleman Jim" by those who have watched his smooth, sportsmanlike ascent to the top. Jim's wife, Maude, is also a familiar name at the speedway, as she has won more than her share of powder puff honors in the past seasons. The Cossmans have two sons, John and Pate.

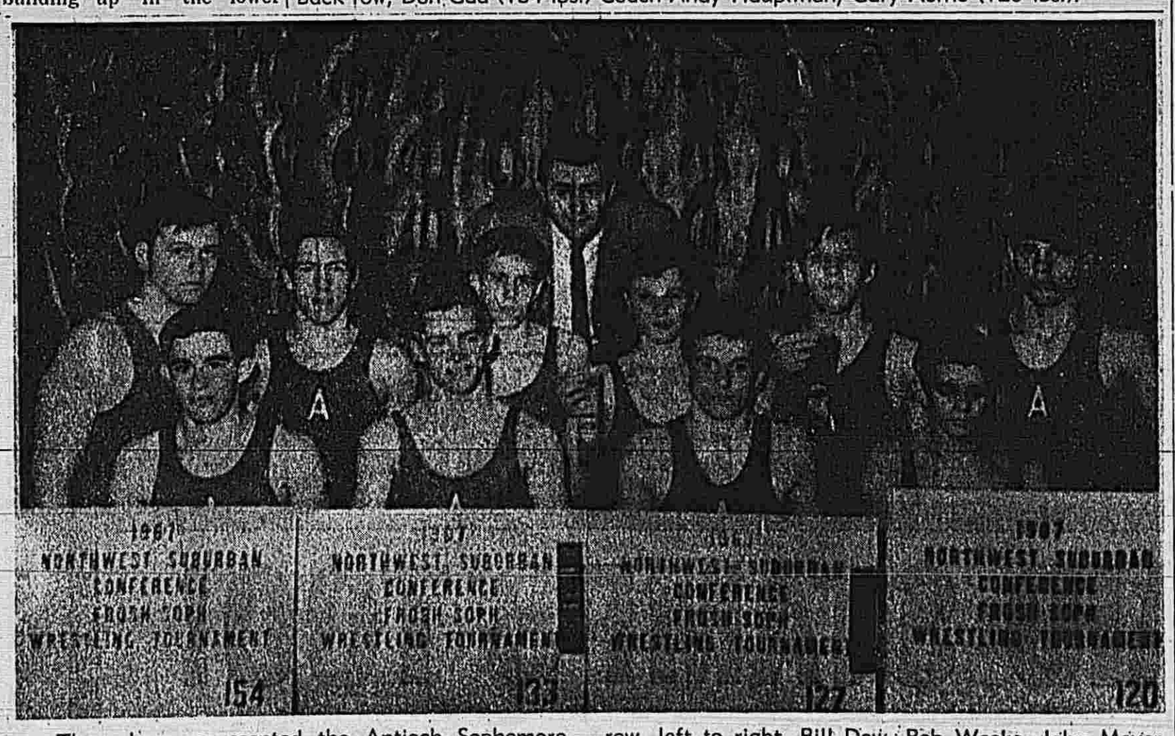

Jim is employed by Karry Brothers Transmissions, 1721 Belvidere Road in Waukegan, and his trade carries over into his garage at home where he designs, builds and maintains his swift 1964 Chevy II late model racer. But the yellow hardtop will meet its stiffest challenge in 1967 at the Waukegan Speedway as at least two new Mustangs, two new Dodges and three new Chevelles will join the already potent list of contenders headed by Chevrolets, Fords, Fairlanes, Falcons, other Chevy II's, Buicks, Valiants and Ramblers.

Cossman will have the advantage of a tested and proven product when he takes to the track April 15th to defend his title. Between July 24th and August 20th last season, Jim won seven out of eight features while still second ranked in the point totals. By the end of September, Cossman had sliced 49/100 of a second off the one lap track record lowering it to :17.14 seconds on September 25th. "Gentleman Jim" paced all drivers in 1966 with 26 total wins including 16 feature victories in 45 evenings.

This year Cossman's Chevy II will carry the cherished No. 1 on its doors and Jim wants to keep it that way for many seasons to come.
